

I am opposed to any loosening of the restrictions on conglomerates owing multiple media outlets. Any further concentration of our media in the hands of a few powerful corporations will further erode the quality of our news and the intelligence of America.